

General Meeting of the Democratic Party of Bulloch County October 20, 2018

The general meeting of the Democratic Party of Bulloch County was Oct. 20 at the headquarters at 18 N. College. Jessica Orvis, Chair, presided with 16 in attendance.

Minutes of the September meeting were approved.

The Treasurer's report was also approved. The current balance is $5,315.73.

A donation to the Francys Johnson campaign was discussed. Dahlia Newton moved to donate $999. The motion was seconded and then amended to $950 by Bill Herring. The amended motion passed unanimously.

Signup sheets were passed for taking part in the Free Expression Area on Georgia Southern campus during early voting there, for holding campaign signs at polling locations on Election Day and for keeping headquarters open.

DPG phone banking and canvassing opportunities were provided.

The need for more picture flyers for state and local candidates was discussed. The Francis Johnson campaign can print them in-house and bill the local party later. Armel will order some from Minute Man to fill the gap.

The 12th District Congressional Debate will be Tuesday at Ogeechee Tech. Doors open at 6:30 and the debate starts at 7:00. Attendance will be limited to 250.

Liz Johnson introduced a special guest, Jill Johns, who provided information on wellness during times of stress and a check list for burnout.

Pat Gillis reminded the group of the NAACP banquet on Nov. 2.

Liz Johnson announced a certificate to honor Pat Gillis for her leadership. The certificate will be presented at a future formal event.

Respectively submitted,

Dahlia Newton, Recording Secretary
